Headteacher: Simon Morley

Learning together for life

Thursday 20th April 2017

Dear Parents / Carers

In my letter of 28th March advising you that Simon Morley would be leaving Kirkby on Bain, I promised to keep you updated on the Governing Body's progress to appointing a new Head Teacher

At our meeting before Easter, the Governors delegated responsibility for the appointment to a panel of Governors and we have been working over the holiday to move the process forward as fast as we can. We can then look to an appointment in time for the new Head to start in role on 1st September 2017.

Kirkby On Bain is seen as a desirable post for a Headteacher and our advertisement and associated paperwork was approved last night by the Governors and our advisors meaning that the advert will appear in the public domain from today. Applications are invited for the role and we hope to interview towards the end of this half term.

As I promised before, I will keep you updated as we move forward, but if you do have any questions please do catch me outside school or via Michelle Lee, Clerk to The Governors.

Your sincerely

Paul Brewster
Chair of Governors
