Dear Parents,

This year we will be celebrating World Book Day on Wednesday 7th March 2018. (A little later than the official day!) We are very keen to make this World Book Day truly about books and all the magic they have to offer: nurturing a love of books is one of the greatest gifts we can give to our children. We can't wait to celebrate and we thank you in advance for supporting us with this.

Dressing up:

This year, each class has chosen a specific book as their theme. The selected story has many characters to choose from. We invite the children to dress up as one of the characters from their class' chosen book; however this does not have to be a full costume (for example, a story hat could be made or face painted to fit the class theme). Their class door will form the book cover and the characters will 'enter' the book for lots of fun and learning. It will be amazing for the children to be fully immersed in the chosen story and dressing up as one of the characters would enhance this further.

The chosen class stories are...

Maple: What the Ladybird Heard

Chestnut: Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Willow: Alice in Wonderland

Oak: Billionaire Boy (and other David Walliams stories)

Competition:

Every child is invited to think about their own favourite book and create a wooden spoon character from it. The competition will be judged in school and book voucher prizes will be given. All entries will displayed in school as part of our book day celebrations.

Fun Filled Day:

There will be lots going on throughout the day including story hunts in the nature reserve and plenty of opportunities to enjoy a good book. We look forward to sharing lots of photos from the day with you and thank you in advance for your support. We know dressing up days create an extra thing for parents to think about, but this promises to be a lovely day.

Thank you,

Mrs Tuite and Mrs Ward

Hope, Peace, Friendship, Forgiveness, Respect and Trust
